

ARTICLE I
Name, Boundaries, Purpose, Scope

Section 1. NAME

This organization shall be named "Connecticut Section, Professional Golfers' Association of America, Inc." and shall be referred to here forth as the "Section". The Professional Golfers' Association of America shall be referred to hereafter as the "Association."

Section 2. BOUNDARIES

The geographical location of this Section includes all the State of Connecticut, except of the territory south and west of a line between the cities of Danbury and Bridgeport: and the western half of the state of Massachusetts except for a small north western corner of the state are the boundaries for the Section.

Section 3. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Section shall be to promote the enjoyment and involvement in the game of golf within the Section, and to contribute to its growth by providing services to golf professionals and the golf industry within the Section.

The Section will accomplish this purpose by enhancing the skills of it professionals and the opportunities for amateurs, employers, manufacturers, employees, and the general public within the Section.

In so doing, the Section will elevate the standards of the professional golfer's vocation, enhance the economic well-being of the individual member, stimulate interest in the game of golf, and promote the overall vitality of the game within the Section.

Section 4. SCOPE

The scope of this Constitution is intended to encompass, but not exceed, that area of jurisdiction granted the Section by the Association, and shall not conflict with either the Constitution, Bylaws or Regulations of the Association.
