

Nathan Grube, PGA

Name: Nathan Grube

College/University: Auburn University

Year Turned Pro: 1997

Facility and Job Title: Tournament Director

What was your motivation to become a PGA Professional?

I knew I wanted to work in the industry and viewed my membership vital to my success.

What is your specialty in the golf business?

My specialty is Event Management. Being a member and working with the PGA Tour is very unique and enjoyable.

What was your greatest moment in golf?

Watching my wife (who is left handed) hit a pure 3 wood right handed and knowing then and there that she could always be better than me if she wanted to be. It has kept me humble through my career.

What or who has had the greatest impact on your career?

My father. He encouraged me to give up baseball and pursue golf. I never would have had this career without his direction and support.

Besides golf, what else do you enjoy?

I enjoy hiking, biking and spending time with my family.

If you could play any golf course in the world, which one would it be and who would complete your foursome?

Bonita Municipal Golf Course. I learned to play there. I would play with my dad, brother and Woody Hayes.

If you could give lessons to anyone in the world who would it be and what advice would you give?

I would give a lesson to President Obama. I think I could help him. I would love to see how he looked swinging right handed.

What is your favorite golf instruction tip?

"Hold the putter like you hold a snake." Personally, this is the worst piece of instruction that I have heard. It has become one of my favorites because who wants to hold a snake? What a negative thought before you putt. The important part is everyone hears something different with golf instruction.