

ARTICLE I
GENERAL

Section 1. GENERAL

These Tournament Rules and Regulations of the Connecticut Section of The Professional Golfers' Association of America, hereafter referred to as section, shall govern the conduct of all professional and/or open and/or invitational golf tournaments and other golf events sponsored, co-sponsored, recognized or sanctioned by the section and any of its chapters and subsidiaries such as the Assistants' Association and, the conduct and responsibilities of the contestants therein and the responsibilities of the sponsors, or co-sponsors, thereof.

These Rules and Regulations may be amended by a majority vote of the Board of Directors or a two-thirds (2/3) majority of voting members at Section Annual Meetings.

Section 2. AMENDMENT PROCEDURES

Members of the section may amend the Rules and Regulations in one of the two following manners:

- (a) PGA Members may submit written proposed amendments to the Tournament Committee. The Tournament Committee must receive such proposals ten (10) days prior to a Board of Directors meeting. The Tournament Committee shall consider such the proposal and may elect to present the proposal to the Board of Directors who can pass, amended or defeat the resolution by a simple majority vote. If the motion carries, the Board of Directors will determine the effective date.
- (b) Or, a PGA Member may propose to amend these section Tournament Rules and Regulations at an Annual Section Meeting by presenting a resolution in writing to the Secretary/New Business Chairman prior to 10:00 a.m. It will require a two-thirds (2/3)-majority vote of the voting membership in attendance. The Board of Directors shall determine the effective date of a passing amendment.
