

Assistant Professional of the Year – Evan Lambert, Hartford Golf Club

The Assistant Professional of the Year award recognizes the professional whose excellent and overall performance as an Assistant Professional contributes through leadership and example to the advancement of assistant professionals. This year's recipient, Evan Lambert, is a Level 2 Associate in the PGA Professional Golf Management Program. Evan is a member of the Assistants Association Board of Directors having served as the Tournament Director in 2017 where he increased participation for the year and currently serves as Secretary. As Assistant Professional at Hartford Golf Club, Evan coordinates PGA Junior League teams in the Greater Hartford area and also works with The First Tee of Connecticut as an instructor in the winter in addition to instructing golf at several elementary schools in Waterbury.