

PGA Golf Professional of the Year: Gary Sassu

Being named the PGA Golf Professional of the Year is the highest honor a PGA Professional can receive. It is the culmination of hours, days, weeks months, and years of hard work. You are being told by your peers that you are the best. This is the PGA Professional of the Year Award. The Golf Professional of the Year is chosen based on outstanding leadership, exceptional performance as a golf professional and distinguished service to the Association and the game of golf. This year's recipient, Gary Sassu, was elected to PGA Membership in 1985 and started at Chippanee the same year.